

Green Key

Dear Guests,

We are delighted to announce that Minaro Hotel Tokaj MGallery has been awarded the Green Key certification - a leading international standard in sustainable tourism. We would like to share this significant achievement with you and provide some information about our initiative.

What is Green Key? Green Key is an eco-label program that promotes sustainable practices in the hotel and tourism sector worldwide. This certification is given to establishments that meet high standards in areas such as energy conservation, water preservation, waste management, environmental education, and more. More than 4,000 hotels and other establishments in 60 countries are Green Key certified.

Our Mission: At Minaro Hotel Tokaj MGallery, we uphold values related to environmental conservation and aim to minimize our impact on nature. Our mission is not only to provide our Guests with a comfortable and luxurious stay but also to take care of our planet for future generations.

Sustainable Development Initiatives: As part of our commitment to sustainable development, we undertake various actions, including:

- Energy and Water Efficiency: We employ energy-efficient lighting, appliances, and regulation systems to reduce our energy and water consumption.
- Waste Reduction: We promote waste segregation and minimize waste by limiting single-use packaging and products.
- Local Products and Cuisine: Our restaurant and bars focus on using local products, supporting local suppliers.
- Education and Awareness: We strive to educate our guests and employees about the importance of environmental protection and encourage eco-friendly actions.

Your Contribution: You are essential partners in our efforts towards sustainable development. We kindly ask for your support in our initiatives by:

- Using energy and water responsibly during your stay.
- Participating in waste segregation programs and caring for the environment during your visit.
- Exploring local attractions and contributing to the local community.

Thank you for choosing Minaro Hotel Tokaj MGallery. Together, we can make a significant difference in safeguarding our beautiful planet. If you have any questions or suggestions regarding our eco-friendly efforts, please don't hesitate to contact our ambassadors.

With warm regards,

Minaro Hotel Tokaj MGallery Team
